

Programs

PROGRAMS

Humpal Physical Therapy offers various personalized programs to treat and rehabilitate patients using the latest scientific techniques and technology along with state of the art equipment to promote the best health and well being attainable by all patients. We encourage you to peruse the listings of all the current program and treatment options available.